

Who is TRST (The Revolution Starts Tomorrow)?

TRST was formed as a collaboration of artists, digital designers, social influencers and enthusiasts of the NFT and crypto scene. Our goal has always been to bring together a community, and to build that community on integrity, energy and quality. Starting exclusively as a digital street art project, TRST has since evolved into a multi-faceted business consisting of 5 branches: 1. Digital Street Art - (Art pieces for real life and bearing some utility with our upcoming TRST Comps system and Discord)

- 2. The Revolutionauts (Our flagship NFT collectibles, with utility connected to the TRST Comps system and Discord) 3. TRSTcomps.com – This will be a blue chip NFT raffle system, currently in development with the help of the Hbar Foundation. This platform will be built on Hedera (with cross chain compatibility) and will offer people the opportunity to play for high end NFTs and prizes.
- 4. TRST Bars We will be minting our very own token for use exclusively in the TRST eco system. These bars will only be available through rewards for participating in the community and also as staking rewards for our holders. These tokens will be redeemable for entry into
- selected comps, thus giving them an actual use case. 5. HashStock - The annual celebration of creation on Hedera. Bringing together the entire NFT ecosystem to offer a huge collaborative giveaway, shining light on all creators and the Hedera space as a whole.
- TRST is laser focused on achieving its goals whilst creating a fun community. We pride ourselves on being on the pulse, responsive and honest. We will work hard to make the TRST community an enjoyable one where everyone is welcome.

Revolutionauts

Gen 1 The Gen1 Revolutionauts are a collection of 100 unique NFTs living on the Hedera network, offering holder tangible benefits within the community and TRST Competition Universe.

TRST Comps

From the inception of TRST we have always had competitions at heart, having successfully run several community centric comps, we decided to invest heavily into this area and develop something truly special on the Hedera network. With the support of the Hbar Foundation we have been able to employ Utopian Lab to create a fully bespoke blue chip NFT raffle system. Currently in development with testing stage just around the corner, TRST will aim to pull together the entire community to help people obtain NFTs they may never have the chance to own. This system will be built with cross chain potential. We are building a distinct user path back to the Hedera network, giving other chains the opportunity to experience all the benefits of Hedera too. We will work hard to build strong relationships with all Hedera projects with the same values as TRST.

To raise awareness, we will host a launch party wherein we will offer several high value competitions with free entry. We want this system to be as accessible and inclusive as possible.

Features:

- Account Creation
- Wallet Connect for direct entry and seamless prize redemption Token gating, enabling specific collabs

Auto ticket select, manual ticket select.

Labs and the Earthlings. This list will grow exponentially as we grow the competitions.

• Ability to offer staking rewards, paid in TRST Bars to all holders of any TRST NFT, with the potential to also reward holders of selected projects within the Hedera space.

Over the coming months we will be looking to create strong strategic partners, we currently have the support of Utopian Lab, Stader

TRST Bars In an effort to create a full eco system, TRST will be minting its very own reward token named TRST Bars. These bars will only be for use within the TRST space, purely for fun and to be redeemable via entering our exclusive TRST Bar competitions. The only way to obtain TRST

Bars will be through either of the following methods.

- Holding any TRST Digital art series 1 or 2
- Holding any Revolutionauts Gen 1 or 2 • Participating and winning in one of our frequent Twitter or Discord giveaways
- Participating in and winning a DIVISIONS challenge
- Participating and winning in our regular Sunday Discord quiz

TRST will not be seeking listings via the various Hedera dexes. TRST Bars will only hold value once redeemed for entry into selected comps via TRST Comps.

entire space to create a fun and rewarding giveaway as a collaborative effort from every creator. Utilising our legacy comps system, 10k tickets were available for free to all. Once allocation was reached, live draws were organised and delivered. Whilst the focus wasn't charity, we took the opportunity to try and raise money for a good cause. https://www.charitywater.org/ was the chosen organisation and we are proud to say that we raised just over 40k HBAR. This HBAR has been safely held in the HashsStock treasury wallet whilst we communicate with Charity Water on the possibility of them extending their crypto portfolio to also include accepting donations in HBAR. Should this option not be possible then we will simply convert to FIAT and pledge the full amount. Once transacted we will announce. We fully plan to run HashStock as an annual celebration, moving forward we will utilise the brand new comps system to facilitate the entering of HashStock. To decentralise we will create its own standalone website, Discord and Twitter. We are grateful to all the creators who put effort into helping the first run be successful and we are hoping to gain the support of several projects to help govern

HashStock moving forward. All of this will take time and effort, and in good faith we will try and deliver a fun and rewarding experience

Celebrating all the amazing creators and participants in the Hedera space, Hashstock was the first of its kind. Bringing together the
